

Murrawarri Acknowledgement of Country

bidara dhuringga

ngadhu gurri [your name]

ngadhu Murrawarri

binumbi-na niyu-yira [name of country you're on]

dhinni-na dhiri-ngga mayi-ngga [name of country]

binumbi-na gabal-gabal ngarra-ga

nhurana nhaa barray

This is just one version of an Acknowledgment of Country in Murrawarri.

There are cultural protocols around the use of Acknowledgment of Country.

If you are unsure, consult with your Elders.

Explanation
bidara	dhuringga
nice / good / sweet	daytime
it is a good day (to be here)
ngadhu	gurri	[your name]
I	name	[your name]
I am [your name]
ngadhu	Murrawarri
I	Murrawarri
I am Murrawarri
binumbi-na	niyu-yira	[name of country you're on] remember we all	live they	[name of country you're on]
I acknowledge the country you live on [name of country you're on] dhinni-na	dhiri-ngga	mayi-ngga	[name of country you're on] stand we all	today on	ground on	[name of country you're on]
the land we are standing on today
binumbi -na	gabal-gabal	ngarra-ga
remember we	old people	ours
and I acknowledge our old people
nhurana	nhaa	barray
you	see	bye and bye / near future
see you soon mob

hear the audio version

